

GDPR Data Protection Officer (DPO) training

By the end of this training course, participants will have a thorough understanding of GDPR, the role of the DPO, and the skills needed to ensure their organisation complies with data protection regulations.

Course content

- Introduction to GDPR
- Roles and responsibilities of a DPO
- Legal basis for processing personal data
- Data subject rights
- Data Protection Impact Assessments (DPIAs)
- Data breach management
- Organisational measures for data protection
- International data transfers
- Liaising with regulatory authorities

Learning objectives

- Comprehensive understanding of GDPR compliance requirements
- Effective management of data subject rights and data breach response
- Implementation of data protection measures and organisational compliance

Approximately 3.25 hours (self-paced)

For people new to the role of Data Protection Officer

Enquire for prices